Nature Effects in AKVIS NatureArt 12.0. Major Update: New Interface, M1 Support

June 1, 2022 — AKVIS announces the update of AKVIS NatureArt, software for imitating natural phenomena on images. Version 12.0 provides the redesigned user interface, a watermark for premium effects in the Home version, full support for Apple M1 processors, and other improvements.

AKVIS NatureArt adds stunningly beautiful natural effects to photos. It is possible to change the weather and mood of an image or create a new picture from scratch. The software includes 12 breathtaking nature effects: Rain, Sun, Water, Ligntning, Clouds, Frost, Rainbow, Aurora, Fire, Ice, Night Sky, and Snow. Each effect comes with a series of presets, customizable settings, and tools.

Version 12.0 introduces the redesigned user interface. The interface elements have been modified, as well as the program icon. The new version offers native support for the Apple M1 series of processors, providing faster performance. The software now allows users to apply the premium effects even in the Home version, with a watermark, saves the Snow Brush settings, adds support for new RAW formats, and offers compatibility and stability improvements.

AKVIS NatureArt is available for download at akvis.com. It's possible to try all features of the software during the 10-day trial period.

AKVIS NatureArt runs on Windows 7, 8, 8.1, 10, 11 - 32/64-bit; macOS 10.12-12.0 - 64-bit. It is also compatible with Linux via Wine. The software can be used as a standalone application and as a plugin with compatible graphics editors: AliveColors by AKVIS, Adobe Photoshop, Corel PaintShop Pro, Affinity Photo, etc.

AKVIS NatureArt comes in Home, Home Deluxe, and Business versions (lifetime licenses), with differing levels of functionality, for a price starting from $72.00. The update is free for users who bought the software in the last 12 months. Users, whose licenses are older and are not valid for the new version, can get AKVIS NatureArt 12.0 for only $14.95.
