AKVIS expands its product line with the release of the new software!

The AKVIS plugins for video editing programs represent striking effects to process family videos, music clips, promo videos, etc. Whether it's a show or a memorable event, the artistic effects by AKVIS will make it unforgettable.

AKVIS Charcoal Video applies charcoal and chalk drawing techniques to videos. The ordinary video turns into a stylized cartoon drawn with soft and delicate strokes.

With the new software, users can create animated cartoons that look like drawn with charcoal and chalk tools. They can use one of the drawing materials or both, varying the settings to create different tones and hatching. It's possible to make black and white cartoons with dramatic contrast between shadows and lights or add smooth tonal transitions. Trying the color settings of the filter, users can get sanguine, sepia, and other astonishing results.

The plugin includes a series of ready-to-use presets. It's possible to choose one of the built-in presets or make new unique charcoal and chalk effects.

AKVIS Charcoal Video is an AE and OFX plugin. It is installed into the video editing programs expanding their functionality. The plugin is compatible with Adobe After Effects, Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Premiere Elements, DaVinci Resolve, Vegas Pro, EDIUS Pro 9, and with the Natron open-source video compositor.
