New Watercolor Frame Pack by AKVIS: Art Experience for Everyone!

April 18, 2019 – AKVIS announces the new picture frame collection for AKVIS Frames and AKVIS ArtSuite - Watercolor Pack. The new frame pack consists of 50 horizontal and 50 vertical templates inspired by impressive watercolor art full of light and brilliant color.

AKVIS has released a new set of frames - the Watercolor Pack, designed exclusively for use in AKVIS Frames (freeware) and AKVIS ArtSuite (Standalone version). The set includes 100 digital picture frames of excellent quality.

Watercolor is a traditional painting technique, which allows colors to bleed into each other, resulting in the enigmatic translucent effect. Being one of the oldest forms of art expression – since about two millennia – watercolor is still adored by many artists around the world. Watercolor art is highly versatile: it can be soft and soothing like velvet (traditional Japanese watercolors), rich and vivid (wet-on-wet or alla prima technique) as well as highly detailed and even photo-realistic (wet-on-dry). Famous watercolorists include Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo, as well as Albrecht Dürer, Thomas Gainsborough, Paul Sandby, Eugène Delacroix, Wassily Kandinsky, Karl Bryullov, and many others.

Due to the water's unpredictableness, painting in watercolor can be quite challenging even for experienced artists. The Watercolor Pack by AKVIS makes watercolor art accessible to anyone! Their elegant design and vibrant colors add an eye-catching final touch to any image. Create romantic wedding invitations and charming greeting cards or simply enhance the beauty of your photo memories. Welcome to the wonderful world of watercolor!
